Many illustrious alumnae participated in the event and shared their views on various topics as it was a platform for rekindling of anecdotes of remarkable journeys, poignant stories and interactive sessions. Many of them volunteered to render services for the benefit of the current students of the college. The event was filled with nostalgia as former students relived their college memories. It was an equally nostalgic and proud moment for the faculty members as well. The meet was compered by Dr Gurpreet and ended with a formal Vote of thanks by Dr.Jyoti Behl with a promise to come together again once the unprecedented time gets over. The event was conducted on the social media platform of Cisco Webex App.

Alumnae Meet Report 2021

Govt. College for Women, Parade organized its Alumnae meeting virtually through a social media platform of Cisco webex App on Friday, 6th of August 2021. This meeting was conducted as part of the college's endeavour to maintain an ongoing relationship with its Alumnae. The ex-students gathered to relive old and unforgettable memories. It was a time and event for old relationship to be cherished, celebrated, refreshed and new ones to be formed; platform for rekindling of anecdotes of remarkable journeys, poignant stories and interactive sessions. The programme began with an invocation by Dr. Gurpreet Kour who welcomed the virtual gathering and the alumnae from the various parts of the country. Principal of the college, Dr. S.P. Sarswat extended a gracious and inclusive welcome to all the esteemed alumnae and gave a comprehensive view about the establishment of the college, its excellence in education and its prestigious name in Higher Education Department. He opined that social distancing and online meeting have become new in the recent past and at the same time this pandemic has also taught us lesson of being flexible and accommodative. He expressed that alumnae can contribute in a big way by taking their Alma mater to the next level by instituting awards, prizes, joint projects & donation to the corpus fund Some of the alumnae expressed their views about the college. There were "WARM SMILES AND BACK HOME" sentiments. All the alumnae went down the memory lane recalling how the institution has contributed in shaping their respective careers as students. There was lot of emotion and nostalgia when alumnae reminisced their days in GCW Parade. Dr. Alpana Vorha, presented power point presentation about the achievements of the college. She gave a comprehensive view of the various activities under taken by the college authorities.

Prof. Indira Rathore, alumna and also the president of the Alumnae Association shared her memories and called GCW Parade as one of the prestigious institutions and also the store house of the knowledge. She recalled her old days, discussed various issues and also talked about the paradigm shift that has taken place with girls soaring high in the sky in every field specially education. One of the alumna Neeru Mishra who is presently working in the high court of Andhra Pradesh recollected her memories and said, "College is a landmark in the journey of one's life. We enter the college with tender feel and come out with matured feel". She also gave huge thanks to all and the esteemed Principal who has been chairing the college and taken the college towards the progress.

Dr. Alka Sharma shared her views that how teachers inculcated her interest in debates. She quoted one of her teacher, "APNE AAP MEIN HONSLA RAKHO, UDAN BHARNA MUSHKIL NAHIN". Dr. Anuradha Pandoh who is presently working as Principal, GDC Bishnah shared an incident of her stage dancing, how she was nurtured by her teachers and how she brought laurels to the college by participating and winning trophies in various cultural programmes. She rhymed a couplet for her teachers, "Yunh Hi Nhi Milti Rahi Ko Manzil; Ek Janoon Sa Dil Mein Jagana Hota Hai; Pucha Chidia Se Kaise Bana Aashiana; Boli – Bharni Padti Hai Uddan Baar Baar Tinka Tinka Udana Hota Hai".

Pallavi Sareen one of the latest pass out talked about the encouragement given to her by her teachers. She gave her suggestions about updating the library as it is the storehouse of the knowledge.

Dr. Samriti Aggarwal who graduated in the year 1987 said is the best platform to revive old times. She was the student of this college and got her first appointment here only; a dream came true which was possible due to proficient teachers. There was a long queue and many more names who revived and rejuvenated their old memories and moments with their old friends and lit up their faces with the beautiful divine smiles and later on they spread their old memories, life and events. Every alumna present acknowledged the fact that GCW Parade is continuing and carrying forward the old mission of imparting true education and serving the nation in true sense and producing skillful citizens.

Nostalgia is a tricky business. It makes us laugh and cry at the sometime. The main intention of a alumnae meet is to relive thought that you belong here, your heart belongs here and home is where the heart is. The meet was concluded by Dr. Jyoti Behl who presented a vote of thanks to all the alumnae who graced the occasion. All the participants were of the view that although pandemic has certainly posed new challenges but initiatives like this should not stop. They bade goodbye with wet eyes, with a promise to meet again and extended their support to their Alma mater.

Report of Alumnae Interactive Meet with NAAC Peer Team

Alumnae are an institution's most loyal supporters. By maintaining communication channels with its alumnae, an institute can keep them informed of its achievements and make them part of an institution's future, not just its past. The NAAC Peer Team has visited our college during 21st and 22nd Dec, 2018. In this connection, Alumnae Interactive Meet with the NAAC Peer Team was organized in the college campus. Alumnae from various places holding prestigious positions were present on the occasion. Prof. Indira Rathore, President of the Alumnae Association, welcomed the NAAC Peer Team and all the dignitaries present on the occasion. She said that our intent was to obtain maximum involvement of the alumnae for the academic advancement of the students.

NAAC Peer Team members congratulated the alumnae, who achieved great success in their career. Dr. Anuradha Jain, NAAC Peer Team Member, opined about the need for interaction and involvement of the alumnae in the overall development of the college. Prof. V. Mathurima, another NAAC Peer Team member exhorted that alumnae should volunteer themselves to help the fellow students regarding Internships, Placements, Guest lectures and Workshops.

Some of the former students shared their memories of the past days, they were nostalgic on coming back to their alma mater. One of the alumna, Prof. Seema Mir was of the view that key reason for her success is the platform that institute provided her. Ms. Namrata Dogra, an alumna, was proud to call herself a product of GCW Parade. After sharing her experiences, she assured all kind of help, support and co-operation for the betterment of her alma mater. Reminiscing the old time, alumnae Prof. Meenu Mahajan and Prof. Vishavraksha shared the stories from their student days and discussed how their teachers motivated and mentored them for successful career. They said, "We are committed to contribute and give back to our alma mater in all possible ways." The interactive meet concluded with a discussion held among all the participants.

REPORT OF ALUMNAE INTERACTION WITH THE PEER TEAM

Alumnae are one of the most influential voices in building your brand. So, it's the job of an institution to nurture these voices by creating a strong connection with their alma mater. In this connection an Alumnae Interactive meet was held in the college campus on 22nd Nov.2021 where the college witnessed the presence of eminent dignitaries interacting with the members of Peer team, who had come for the inspection to grant autonomous status to the college. Prof.(Dr.) Ved Kumari Ghai, Padamshree and Sanskrit scholar was honoured in the alumnae meet for her selfless contribution in the field of research and literature. Prof. Indira Rathore, President of the alumnae association greeted the alumnae and lauded the efforts of the Prof.(Dr.)S.P. Sarswat, Principal of the college, for his vision and developmental works going on in the college. Prof.(Dr.) Yasmeen Ashai, Director Colleges, Higher Education Department, welcomed the Peer team members and apprised them of the contribution made by Prof.(Dr.) Ved Ghai to the society as a whole and to this college in particular. She also exhorted the young alumnae to come forward with new innovative ideas for the overall development of their alma mater. Prof.( Dr.) Ved Ghai also spoke on the occasion and motivated everyone to come forward and work for the betterment of the college. She said that GCW, Parade primarily intends to nurture the shelved potential in students providing an ideal platform for them to channelize their creative outbursts and to give expression to their thoughts and views on various aspects in serene manner. She also narrated her story and shared her experiences of her stay in this college.

Some of the young alumnae also shared their experiences and were nostalgic on coming back to their parent institution. One of the young alumnae Ananya expressed herself as being fortunate to be a part of this institution where she got platform to enrich her skills with the support and endeavor of the faculty members.

Vidushi Verma, a recent pass out said, "The friendly environment, the systematic approach towards imparting education at G.C.W. Parade made me competent individual. Due to Covid-19, there was a paradigm shift in my curriculum and those years were challenging but they escalated me on the learning curve and led to my personal development." The graduates shared their success stories and experiences, and how the college contributed in preparing them for their careers. The meeting concluded with an open discussion held between all participants.

Govt. College for Women, Parade Ground, Jammu organized Alumnae Meet

To take a walk down the corridors of nostalgia, the most prestigious institution in the city GCW Parade, Jammu established in the year 1944 which now holds strength of 6500 students experienced a new environment on 19th of Dec 2017 when an alumnae meet was held in the college auditorium. Along with wrinkled faces, famous personalities found their way back to their college to meet their old friends and once they come across the changed faces recognized each other, tone of emotions governed their hearts and minds. The meet started traditionally with the lighting of the lamp by the Principal of the college Dr. Hemla Aggarwal and senior members of the advisory committee along with the recitation of a shloka by the college student. After the welcome address by Principal Dr. Hemla Aggarwal, the convenor of the alumnae committee Prof. Samriti Manchanda gave a power point presentation in which she highlighted about the achievements of the college. Many members of alumnae graced the occasion by their presence. There was an interactive session with the esteemed guests. Prof. Ved Ghai who is an eminent personality of our state revived some memories of her college days. She suggested that the syllabus should be framed in such a way that many key concepts like taxation system, political set up should be taken from the Sanskrit literature. There should be translatory works from Sanskrit to English.

Prof. Indira Rathore who is the president of Alumnae association said that this meet is reviving the association. Its purpose is to create a bond off and on, and also to know about the development of the college and parameters where it is lacking. She also talked about the revival of women study centre and introduction of different skill development programmes.

Prof. Rita Jitender stressed upon the need of the Auditorium in the college where dramas and other historical plays of significance be performed. She also suggested to invite the students of the college in the next Alumnae meet to share their experiences and to know about the challenges of the college and to decide about the important measures to be taken for the improvement. There should be better teaching learning programmes. In the end she also suggested that more creative writing workshops should be organized in the college so that students can become sensitive creative and good human beings.

Prof. Sindhu Kapoor was very much nostalgic about her college days. She said that faculty should try to have motherly touch towards their students. Students sometimes are very aggressive in the college, so faculty should try to channelize their negative energy in doing something constructive. She also said that faculty of the college should organize Graduation Day for the students as this will maintain tradition of compassion between students and teachers.

Prof. Kiran Bakshi suggested teachers to initiate interest of students to use library extensively. They should try to encourage the students to stay connected with the books. She said that we should be researcher within our ownself and try to produce students of that very temperament which is not possible without books.

After the interactive session the ambience was electrified with different games and ice breaking sessions by Dr. Shivani Manchanda, great bonhomie was observed everywhere by the cultural programme organized by the Music Department. In the end the vote of thanks was presented by Dr. Shalini Sharma. The meet ended with the promise to meet again and everyone bid emotional farewell to each other.
